Because we are a smaller bank, we use an intermediary beneficiary bank to facilitate our wires. Our wires first pass through Banker's Bank of the West (the beneficiary bank), and use their routing number. Then, the wire comes to us, the Gunnison Bank and Trust Company (GB&T), with our dedicated incoming wire account number. The most crucial step: in the "Further Credit to" section, you must put the GB&T account holder's name, physical address, and the account number which will ultimately receive the wire's funds. Without this info, we will reject the wire.
